This claim was rewritten to correct the claim language of the amended claim wherein on line 3, one of the words "at" was omitted mistakenly and it should correctly read "... removing plastic material at at least one location ..." on line 3.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Regarding claim 1, the prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest the series of steps, particularly the step of "forming an annular plastic cap having a lower face and an array of impeller vanes distributed around and extending from said lower face; and securing said cap to an upper face of said disc by connecting the free ends of said vanes to said upper face" which was an allowable subject matter of previous claim 3, which Applicant has incorporated in the newly amended claim 1.
